

About our CONFERENCE SPEAKERS

Rev John Kirkpatrick has been the Minister of Portrush Presbyterian Church since 1993 and is a tutor and teacher in 'Reality 316 Apologetics Course'. A lifetime motorcyclist and for the past 20 years one of the chaplains in the Motorcycle Union of Ireland, he is responsible for providing a pastoral ministry within the racing community. John is married to Joan, has four children and two grandchildren. He enjoys bee keeping, watching good films, reading, travel, people and quietly supporting Tottenham Hotspur F.C.

Jeremiah Cho joined CEF Korea in 1988. Within Korea he worked along with his wife as pioneer missionary, Education Director and assistant to the National Director. In 2004 God guided Jeremiah to go to Sri Lanka as a pioneer missionary, where he established a CEF ministry. God called him back to Korea to be the National Director where he remained until he took the role of Middle East Regional Director in 2013. In the Middle East Region, there are 28 countries with 2.2 billion people, of which 600 million are children. They need to hear the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Phyllis Coulter is a BACP senior accredited psychotherapist. In addition to providing therapy to adults, she has worked for many years with children and young people both in the statutory sector and in private practice. Phyllis has been a Christian since childhood. She is married with two adult children and is a member of Greenisland Baptist Church. As well as her professional qualifications, she has a degree in theology from QUB.

Phyllis is an experienced and enthusiastic speaker who will bring her knowledge of theology and psychology to engage with the very relevant subject of stress and anxiety.

Arab World Ministries worker who has been involved in ministry among Muslim women and children for six years in the UK, North Africa and the Middle East. As an English teacher she has seen God open doors which seemed impossible.
