

Hi! I'm having a great holiday. The first day we had terrible weather with thunderstorms and strong winds. But now it is sunny and we can go and visit many places. I wish you could be here with us! By the way, I thought about what you told me concerning God. I'm surprised you believe there is a God! I can't believe in someone I do not see. I don't think there is a God. See you in three weeks when I get back!

Case Studies

1 Pamela needs to make a big decision about her future. It is time for her to choose what school to go to next year. She wonders what the point of studying is. Nowadays it is so difficult to get a job! She is going through a tough time asking herself questions about the meaning of life.

If Pamela would draw near to God, what do you think she would experience?

2 George kept saying to his wife, "I'll stop drinking," but as soon as a problem would come up, he would go back to the pub. He would feel great, but only for a while. It all started three years ago when he felt so empty and miserable. Now alcohol is part of his life and his wife is not part of it anymore. There seems to be no way to win the battle.

If George would draw near to God, what do you think he would experience?

3 Lucy turned ninety a couple of days ago. Her family organised a great party for her. But now that they are all gone, she struggles with the same problems and questions. Her health is not good. She knows she won't live very long. She keeps thinking back to when she was younger and enjoyed travelling around the world. Now it is all over!

If Lucy would draw near to God, what do you think she would experience?

Problem 1:

“All my friends follow various TV series. I know some involve things that are immoral, but surely there is no harm in just watching. What do you think?”

Problem 2:

“I’m 13 and this really good-looking boy has asked me out. My friends say I would be crazy not to go but mum says I’m too young. She says that she doesn’t mind if I go in a crowd but not alone. I think she is being old fashioned. What do you think?”

Problem 3:

“I like to dress fashionably. Last week my dad scolded me because I wore a short skirt. Surely there is nothing wrong with keeping up with the fashion trends?”

Problem 4:

In school my mates meet some of the girls behind the bicycle sheds at lunchtime. We have a good laugh but sometimes I get a bit uncomfortable when there are a lot of ‘double meanings’ and ‘smutty jokes’. My friend, who is also a Christian, says that I’m making a fuss about nothing and that there is no harm in it. What do you think?”

Case Study

Joni Eareckson Tada

Joni was born in Baltimore, USA, in 1950. She grew into a young adult surrounded by love, happiness and security in her parent's home.

In 1967, on a hot July day, she met her sister, Kathy, and some friends at the beach on the Chesapeake Bay to swim. She dove in quickly, and immediately knew something was wrong. Though she felt no real pain, a tightness seemed to encompass her. Her first thought was that she was caught in a fishing net and she tried to break free and get to the surface. Panic seized her as she realised she couldn't move and she was lying face down on the bottom of the bay. Kathy ran to Joni and managed to pull her out of the water. She yelled for someone to call an ambulance and Joni was rushed to the hospital. Joni's life was changed for ever that July day in 1967. She had broken her neck - a fracture between the fourth and fifth cervical levels. She was now a quadriplegic, paralysed from the shoulders down. While her friends were busy preparing to go to college in the autumn, Joni was fighting for her very life and having to accept the fact that she would have to live out the rest of her life in a wheelchair.

Joni raged against her fate. She struggled with depression and often she wanted to end her life. She could not understand how God could let this happen to her. Before the accident she had felt that she wasn't living the life she should be, so she had prayed that God would change her life.

After months of staring at the ceiling, Joni began to wonder if this was God's answer to her prayer. This realisation that God was working in her life was the beginning of Joni's journey to wholeness as a disabled person.

She learned to live with her disabilities and she immersed herself in God's Word to become spiritually strong. Being naturally creative, she learned to draw and paint holding her utensils with her teeth. She sold her artwork and it was a great success. She was also able to share Christ's love in her drawings. She always signed her paintings "PTL" which stood for "Praise the Lord". Joni became a sought after conference speaker, author, and actress, portraying herself in the World Wide Pictures production of "Joni". She wrote several books. But her most satisfying and far-reaching work is her advocacy on behalf of disabled people. In 1979, Joni moved to California to begin a ministry to disabled people around the globe, called "Joni and Friends". In 1982, Joni married Ken Tada and they continued serving the Lord together.

- ✦ What kind of life did Joni have before her accident?
- ✦ How did the accident affect her life?
- ✦ What became her new priorities?
